Mr. Jose Rodriguez
Mr. William Harlow

Dear Jose and Bill:

Thank you for meeting with us last Friday. We are providing, for your records, a copy of the pages with our agreed changes (i.e., wording changes, PRB objection withdrawals, or new suggested language. We look forward to receiving your revised version of Hard Measures. The following is only the pages with changes:

(b)(3) NatSecAct

(b)(3) CIAAct
(b)(3) NatSecAct
(b)(6)

Once you have rewritten or otherwise modified the text to accommodate our required deletions and any requested changes, please resubmit the amended material for review so that we can ensure that the text no longer contains any classified information.

If you add material to or change the text the Board has approved for publication, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. In such a case, please mark or otherwise clearly indicate the new material so we can expedite our review. Additional material that must be submitted includes, but is not limited to, photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, charts, indexes, glossaries, or maps.

You must submit the galley proofs (or other final-version formats) of the final manuscript as it will appear in book form so the Board can verify that the published version is the approved version. Your responsibility as the author is to ensure that the publisher publishes only the Board-approved version. Since this final review may take up to thirty days, please ensure that the publishing schedule permits adequate time for the Board to complete its work. The Board gives these reviews high priority because it knows that authors and publishers have firm deadlines.

The Board requires that you include the following disclaimer in your book:

All statements of fact, opinion, or analysis expressed are those of the author and do not reflect the official positions or views of the CIA or any other U.S. Government agency. Nothing in the contents should be construed as asserting or implying U.S. Government authentication of information or Agency endorsement of the author's views. This material has been reviewed by the CIA to prevent the disclosure of classified information.

If you disagree with the Board's determination, you may ask the Board in writing and within 30 days of the initial determination, to reconsider. Include any and all information or explanation of the facts that you believe the Board should know. You may include citations or copies of similar references that show this information to have been previously released and already in the public domain. Although a mere listing of published citations may not necessarily be sufficient to change the Board's decision. If the Board upholds its initial decision, you may then formally appeal the Board's reconsideration decision. Such appeals go to the Agency's Associate Deputy Director for a final Agency decision. If you wish to appeal, you must do so within 30 days of the Board's reconsideration decision. The appeal must be in writing and must be sent to the Board's Chairman. Appeal documentation must include the material intended for publication and any supporting material you would like the Associate Deputy Director to consider. Please note that in all cases, the decision of the ADD/CIA is final. If an appeal is NOT brought to the attention of ADD/CIA within applicable time limits, the original decision of the PRB will be adopted.

The Board appreciates your cooperation with prepublication review. Please do not hesitate to contact the Publications Review Board at if you have any questions or (b)(3) CIAAct if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

A rectangular box with a thin black border, used to redact the signature of the Chairman of the Publications Review Board.
